Alles zum Standort

The Seranggracht is one of the pleasant intermediate canals on Java Island, which connects the IJ and the IJ harbour. The area is virtually car-free. It is pleasant and quiet to live here with a beautiful park and swimming and waterway on the doorstep. All amenities are within walking distance, such as the Brazil shopping center (free parking for the first hour and a half!) where you can really do all your shopping with two supermarkets, a Hema, Blokker and Etos. But schools, childcare and several restaurants such as Bar Kitchen De Zuid, Kanis, Bistro Les Zazous and the Lloyd Hotel are also just around the corner. For musical events you can go to Club Panama. Around the corner is the tram stop of line 7 (this runs along Carré, Museumkwartier, Leidseplein, etc.). Bus 43 to Central Station, bus 65 to Amstel station and the ferry to Amsterdam North stop at the same stop. Central Station and the heart of Amsterdam are a 10-minute bike ride away. Both the Piet Hein tunnel and the A10 and A1 can be reached within 5-10 minutes by car. It is also possible to moor a boat in front of the door.
