All about the location

Pankow is a district with lots of greenery. Villas and detached houses are characteristic, along with the occasional apartment building. The district is one of the middle-class residential areas in northern Berlin. Extensive green spaces such as the Pankower Bürgerpark, Schönholzer Heide, Brosepark and the park at Schönhausen Palace make the district attractive not only for families with children. With a population of around 100,000, the Pankow district forms a self-contained urban unit in the middle of the city of Berlin and has always been a good place to live. In addition to stores for everyday needs, Pankow also offers numerous sports and recreational facilities, restaurants and cafés. Public facilities such as schools, daycare centers and various government offices round off the infrastructure. Although Pankow is a quiet district surrounded by greenery, it is very well connected to public transportation and close to the Berliner Ring freeway junction and the city freeway. The property is located in the immediate vicinity of the Pankow-Heinersdorf S-Bahn station, from where you can quickly reach all important points in Berlin, but are also quickly in the beautiful Berlin countryside. Other streetcar and bus lines complete the excellent public transport connections.
