A first impression

Entire building for office use, with a large private yard belonging to it. On the ground floor the rooms in the current composition are presented with a reception reception area, a large waiting room that can also be exploited as an operational area, and two separate single offices at the back, as well as a toilet. The central staircase leads to the first floor, where there are 3/4 individual offices and a large office of executive type or exploitable as a meeting room. A toilet is currently absent on the floor, but the connections and drains are in place to restore it without excessive invasive work. On the top floor in the attic, several rooms that can be exploited both as guest quarters as there is a bathroom with shower and as an archive area.
