A first impression

Von Poll Real Estate exclusively presents this elegant fully renovated apartment, a rare opportunity in the residential heart of Vicenza, in the most exclusive area of the City, at the foot of Monte Berico. The property is distinguished by its class A2 energy efficiency and underfloor heating, offering a high level of living comfort and significant energy savings. The apartment is generously spread over an area that accommodates three large bedrooms, and 3 bathrooms. The heart of the house is a bright and inviting living room illuminated by natural light streaming in through the many French doors that open onto a wonderful terrace. A further highlight is represented by the modern kitchen, completely new and equipped with the latest appliances, perfect for those who like to cook in a functional and aesthetically pleasing space, from which there is access to an additional, more private terrace, which overlooks the internal garden of the unit located on the ground floor. The main terrace is particularly suitable for outdoor entertaining of guests as well, allowing for enchanting views of the surroundings and creating a natural flow between indoors and outdoors. The presence of a dedicated laundry room and a study adds functionality to daily life. A garage completes the property, offering a convenient and secure solution for parking. The apartment is equipped with an air conditioning system to ensure maximum comfort in every season. This property represents the ideal choice for those looking for a prestigious home, combining luxury and practicality in one of the most sought-after areas of Vicenza.
