The penthouse for sale, with a large terrace for exclusive use, reflects an unmissable opportunity to live in the heart of Milan, offering a commercial area of about 210 sq m that guarantees large, bright and versatile living spaces. The ninth floor completes the property with a 176sqm commercial terrace. The elevator reaches the floor with direct entrance into the house. Multiple extraordinary renovation works have recently been carried out including the encasing of the chimney and waterproofing of the roof of the elevator's technical volume. Built in 1967 and currently in need of renovation, this property represents the perfect balance between the charm of the rational 1960s property and the possibility of customization, for those looking for a unique environment to be shaped according to their tastes and needs. The penthouse is distinguished by its generously sized six rooms, including four bedrooms and three bathrooms and a laundry room, offering abundant space for a family or those who wish to host friends and family. The apartment features triple entry. The parquet flooring contributes to a cozy and warm atmosphere throughout the apartment, adding a touch of elegance and comfort. One of the most charming features of this property is its terrace, which is accessible and perfect for enjoying moments of outdoor relaxation while admiring the views of the city, savoring the tranquility of a private setting. The east and west orientation of the penthouse ensures natural light throughout the day, while the balcony adds further value and opportunity to enjoy the outdoor space. Located in one of the most sought-after areas of Milan, this penthouse represents a rare opportunity to live in one of the most dynamic and culturally rich cities in Italy, surrounded by history, art and a vibrant social and commercial life. If you are looking for a home that combines style, comfort and an enviable location, this penthouse in Milan could be the ideal place to start your new chapter in life. The current state of the apartment with terrace, allows you to think of many revaluation options for the property, which goes from becoming a single-family penthouse with a large terrace, to the possibility of being transformed into multiple units with portions of the terrace.
