All about the location

The town of Manerba del Garda, located in the southern part of Lake Garda, is known for its unique and incomparable view of Lake Garda. Nowhere else is it possible to see such a sweeping view from south to north of the lake. Framed by olive groves, vineyards and cypress trees, it is the ideal place to relax. The region, characterized by a green moraine landscape, allows you to let your soul dangle and experience nature in its purest state. Manerba del Garda is considered one of the most interesting towns on Lake Garda. It is home to more than 5,000 people over an area of about 28 square kilometers. The town is best known for its lakefront, one of the most beautiful on the lake. Manerba is known for its picturesque coastal area with the small port of Porto Dusano and beautiful long beaches. North of the Rocca di Manerba, the long, narrow promontory of Punta Belvedere juts into the lake. From its tip one can wade to the cypress island of San Biagio, which offers wonderful bathing spots on its shallow shore.
